

Bio

AFRICAN ROOTS REGGAE

GENERAL TCHEFARY is a descendant of the great opponent of the struggle against French colonialism in Africa "I'Almamy Samory Touré". Growing up with his mother, he never saw his father. Becoming a musician kept him away from the bandits and out of trouble.

Ibrahim Touré, alias General Tchefary, met his music in West Africa, Ivory Coast in the year 1998. As an artist, he started in the hip-hop movement then gradually deflected in the life of Reggae music. He chose Reggae music for what it stands for. Reggae music is his life; it gives him the joy of living. It gives him hope to see a better world where people live in harmony without injustice. Because of this way of life, he and Reggae music have become one, as if they were born together.

He released his first Album in 2008, "Soya " which gives it a marked evolution over Ivorian showbiz and ranking it among the hopes of Africa Reggae people.

"Il Est Temps" is the title of the second album from 2013. This CD became International and open to the world. It talks about denunciation, revolution and education. This album has become an explosion factor for our General Tchefary.

Released March 15, 2018, the compilation of another CD was recorded in Portugal by Da Lion Music called "I-Ternal Riddim" with General Tchefary and many other famous Reggae world singers. Published on March 22, 2018 General Tchefary launches a single of two titles "Black no for sale" and "Help The Syrians" as soldiers who go lighting the way to announce the arrival of the battalion of 13 tracks.

The third album of the General was recorded in three different studios, DMB Studio in Cote D'Ivoire of Africa, Blackstar Studio Portugal in Europe and Waterworks Recording in the United States of America; all is currently mixing and mastering in Jamaica by Gregoris Morris III. The expected publication will be before the end of 2018.

In 2015 he was invited by K-Bass Music to America to promote African Root Reggae.

General Tchefary is multi-dimensional in his art, he sings with Solidarite Sympa, Dub Society, K-Bass Music and General Tchefary bands. He has performed at festivals with famous singers, Alpha Blondy, Ky-Mani Marley, Morga Heritage, Third World, I Threes, Tiken Jah Fakoly and many more.

Facebook : General Tchefary
Website : www.generaltchefary.com

ReverNation : General Tchefary
Youtube : General Tchefary